RIEFLETS.

—Mr. Joseph Bissdale is home from Europe.

—The weather clerk is dealing in roast ed chestnuts again.

—Thursday evening a private party will be given at Pope's Springs.

—Olaf W. B. Britton and wife will start for Lake Geneva next week.

—John H. Groebbeck, of the high school class of '87, is studying law with Smith & Pileo.

—Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening.

—Regular weekly meeting.

—Hereafter the drill of the Janesville Guards—formerly the Bowser City Guards—will be held on Wednesday night.

—Mrs. Andrew Barless, of the town of Harmony, started to-day for Nebraska to visit a sister. She will be absent about two weeks.

—Mr. Thomas Bowles, of the firm of Bowles & Madden, started to-day for France. He will return with a fresh supply of imported horses.

—Mrs. I. B. Moore, accompanied by her son George, and daughters Daisy and Odie, of Danvers, Massachusetts, are in the city, the guest of her mother and sister Miss M. E. Gould.

—The new "Salvation Army" barracks, South River street, were dedicated last evening. The attendance was quite large and there was much enthusiasm in the services.

—Mr. Carl Balch, of Aurora, Ill., and Mr. F. J. Balch, of St. Joseph, Mo., came home to spend the Fourth of July with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Balch, Cornelia street, second ward.

—Judge Bennett has a case on his calendar that was tried and decided by Judge Conger. Before the findings were filed, Judge Conger died, and the case must therefore come up once more.

—One of the members of the firm of Miller Bros., expects soon to build himself a residence in Forest Park. Work on the property of Clarence L. Clark, S. B. Smith and C. B. Conrad has already begun.

—Last evening a meeting of the Forest Park association was held in the Rock County National bank. Several propositions for building lots were received, and it is probable that several handsome residences will soon be put up.

—Something very interesting is now on trial before Judge Bennett. It is the divorce case of Emma J. Arthur against the Rev. O. M. Arthur, formerly of Evansville, but now of Dakota. The charges are cruel and inhuman treatment.

—To-day a jury was drawn in the case of the state against Trevelyan and Hayes. The jurors were J. H. Kinney, F. R. Stevens, William Conway, John Gibbons, Charles Heath, Henry Blank, D. D. Wilson, N. E. Bennett, John Stanton, E. J. Atoller, Nelson Carlson and M. A. Ott.

—The Rev. H. A. Miner will carry to Madison some very pleasant recollections. One of them will be that just before he started, a little spoon by the Rev. S. P. Wilder, in behalf of the Congregational society, paved the way for a present of one hundred dollars in gold.

—Division No. 3, A. O. U. of H., at the Guards' armory on Monday evening, entertained a large party of their friends by giving an enjoyable and pleasant dancing party, everything connected with the arrangements passing in the happiest manner.

—Second ward people are making up a petition to the common council regarding the new school building. They claim that the present school property is inadequate and recommend the purchase of the lots belonging to O. G. Drummond. It is probable, however, that the affair will fall through.

—Blotgett & Nelson's planning mill at Beloit was partially burned last evening. The fire was discovered in the late afternoon. It had gained considerable headway. The firemen got five streams on the building and made a handsome stop, containing the fire to the top story. Total loss estimated at $7,000 to $10,000, which is well covered by insurance in several companies.

—The Knights of Labor dance at the Riverside rink on the evening of the Fourth, was one of the largest dancing parties ever held in Janesville. Two hundred and seventy-one tickets were sold, and it is estimated that between seven and eight hundred ladies and gentlemen were present. The arrangements were perfect and the dance was a most pleasant one.

—The friends and acquaintances of the campers at Pope's Springs are cordially invited to attend a complimentary party to be given Thursday evening at the springs. The steamer Enterprise will leave Beloit's dock at 7:30 and 9:00 p. m. promptly.

THE CALLAHAN MURDER.

Additional Details Concerning a Most Horrible Tragedy.

To-day The Victim's Body is Brought to Janesville For Interment.

AN OLD FELD.

Garret Callahan, who was shot in Chicago, Sunday, was brought to this city to-day on the 4:45 train.

The crime for which Dennis Callahan now lies in jail is explained in several ways. Some claim that Garret dragged the prisoner's wife four years ago and criminally assaulted her. It was the discovery of this fact a short time ago, together with rumors that Garret was circulating scandalous stories concerning his wife, that the prisoner gives as a cause for his deed.

On the other hand, the friends of Garret Callahan profess that they do not believe that he ever committed the crimes imputed to him. They say that Dennis Callahan is a man of violent temper; that a few months ago, for a fancied offense, he abused two men around the railroad yard at the point of the revolver and that his cause of anger against his nephew was that the latter did not use his influence to have Dennis reinstated in his job as gatekeeper, from which he was discharged recently.

The details of the crime are as follows: Garret Callahan sat in Kings' saloon playing cards when Dennis entered, revolver in hand. Without removing the handkerchief that covered his face, he stepped up to Garret and fired twice. The first shot entered Garret's chest, the second penetrated his breast below the right shoulder. Frank Callahan grasped the weapon, and after a struggle obtained possession of it, but before doing so the pistol was discharged, and the time the ball entered Garret's stomach. The made renewed the struggle with Callahan, and regained possession of the revolver just as his victim toppled over and fell from the chair to the floor dead. An attempt was made to seize Dennis, but he held his pistol and backed slowly out of the saloon, threatening to shoot any person who dared to obstruct him. Kings sent his two little daughters out to summon a doctor and the police, but Callahan drove them back into the house. A large and excited crowd quickly collected, among which loud threats of lynching were freely made, but no one had the courage to face Callahan's weapon. A patrol wagon was finally called. Callahan was finally seized, but made no attempt to resist arrest, but objected to surrendering his revolver on the ground that he needed it to defend himself against the crowd that was clamoring for his life around the wagon. He was disarmed, however, and taken to the West Chicago avenue station.

It is feared that the crime will result in three deaths instead of one. The murdered man's wife and her newly born child are neither of them expected to live.

SEEN THROUGH A SPY GLASS.

Several rather raffish poker games where the players are ladies.

Bob Campbell hunting around with a club for the man that said he was to be married.

One or two westside parties, tramping for fear somebody will unearth a brand-new scandal.

Marshal Hogan wondering how they ever got through celebrating without a fight.

Lemonade man, looking around for good investments in government bonds, after the Fourth.

Captain Fred Koehn, smiling as though being dirt master of twenty children, was something very pleasant.

Several young men, flinging on base ball combinations and anxious to know whether their linen dusters will have to answer next winter for overcoats.

A streak of something dark, followed by a rolling cloud of dust, is supposed to be City Attorney Pierce on his way to Clear Lake behind his roadster.

HARMONY.

The recent rains make the crops and farmers smile.

One of the boys belonging to Mr. Leroy Frick was killed by lightning Saturday on the farm of Mr. U. A. Arnold.

The picnic at the Big Pond last Friday by Misses Gleason's and Coy's school was a most successful one. There were about sixty persons present. The exercises were appreciated by the audience, the little folks doing splendidly, reflecting much credit on their teachers. The dinner was by no means a small affair. By the way, the day was so present can testify, for after they were all filled and the fragments gathered together there were twelve baskets full. The rain came a little too soon for the picnic, but altogether every body had a jolly good time.

Ladies' good and kid button shoes with worked button, silk lined, flexible soles over lapped quarters only, $1.75, for the closing out sale of A. Richardson & Bro.

Many of the good things of this life are sorrowfully lost alone on account of dyspepsia. Acids, dyspepsia, indigestion, will cause you to lose your appetite, and you will lose your health. Sold by Frontice & Evenson, O. P. O.

EMERALD GROVE.

Monday was one of the most perfect days that we have had for celebrating. Early in the morning the clouds were very black, seeming to indicate rain, but there was only a slight drizzle, and the sun soon came out, and the day was a perfect one.

The glorious Fourth passed off very quietly with us. A good many people in the Janesville celebration. At 2:30 in the morning our cannon, and the firing of the guns, opened the celebration. The first of the gunnery was at 2:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 3:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 3:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 4:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 4:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 5:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 5:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 6:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 6:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 7:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 7:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 8:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 8:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 9:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 9:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 10:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 10:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 11:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 11:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 12:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 12:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 1:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 1:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 2:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 2:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 3:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 3:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 4:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 4:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 5:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 5:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 6:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 6:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 7:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 7:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 8:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 8:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 9:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 9:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at 10:00, and the rest of the gunnery was at 10:30, and the rest of the gunnery was at
